

The Y5 children then went onto Barrow Dock Museum to listen to a really interesting talk about Barrow in the Blitz. The children asked and answered lots of great questions. All the children listened to the air raid siren and got a chance to sit in a replica Anderson shelter!

